

Ski Telluride, Colorado - February 6 - 13, 2021

Old Town Telluride    Looking down See Forever    The crowds    Gorrone Ranch on the slope

I have been waiting for Blue Ridge to go to Telluride for a long time. This is a place where I took my wife on her first ski trip out west--my first time to Telluride also--and we both fell in love with the town and the great skiing! We are staying slope-side at Cimarron in two and three-bedroom condos. It will be a short walk to the lift and to the 'Goose', the bus that makes a town loop that takes you to the gondola and to all the shops and restaurants in the town of Telluride.

Description: This trip includes roundtrip airfare; roundtrip transfers from Montrose Airport to Telluride with a grocery/liquor stop; seven nights' lodging at Cimarron in Telluride Old Town in two- and three-bedroom condos (slope-side, short walk to a lift); lift tickets for five out of six days; and Complimentary Wine and Cheese Welcome Reception. This is a Blue Ridge Ski Council (BRSC) trip which also includes: Welcome Reception Superbowl Party on Sunday; on-mountain Western Barbecue; Final Farewell Dinner and Dance; and Mountain Tours. An extra bonus: Telluride has 2,000 skiable acres, and it has lots of room on the slopes where it will be hard to find a crowd. After you ski there, you might not want to ski anywhere else.

We will be flying out of BWI to Montrose Airport through Chicago on American Airlines departing on February 6 and returning on February 13. Then we have an 80-minute bus ride that includes a stop for supplies.

Cost breakdown:

For Club Crabtowne dues-paying members or BRSC members, the base cost is $2,410.
