Telluride Summer

Telluride, Colorado

Wednesday, July 13, 2016 to Wednesday, July 20, 2016

Let's go to the other Telluride, Colorado and explore it during the summer. There is plenty to do, and we will be there for a week. The Art + Architecture Festival is being held during the weekend, and weekdays there is hiking, biking, off-roading, fly fishing, horseback riding, etc. We will be staying in the Mountainside Inn in Old Telluride--a short walk to shops and restaurants. The drop dead date for a full trip will be when the vendor cannot fulfill any new requests.

Cost: Member and one guest $1,370.00 each. Additional guest and non-members will join Club Crabtowne.

Payment: $1,000 Deposit upon sign-up; balance due April 26, 2016.

Day Trips From Telluride

Exciting Day Trips in the Telluride Region from Telluride.com:

We have listed some of our favorite day trips from Telluride below. You can choose to make 2 trips in a day, like Montrose and Ouray - or just one, like a trip to the Four Corners or Mesa Verde. These are all within 3 hours driving distance from Telluride.

Mesa Verde - Mesa Verde National Park, located between Durango & Cortez and only 2.5 hours from Telluride, is rich in history with spectacular views stretching over one hundred miles.

Million Dollar Highway - U.S. Route 550 runs from Bernalillo, New Mexico to Montrose, Colorado in the Western United States. Boasting one of the most beautiful, jaw-dropping drives in the entire nation, this stretch of road is frequently called the Million Dollar Highway. Known for its mountain passes, high elevation, amazing scenery, steep cliffs, and other various adventures - this drive is not for the fainthearted, but worth every mile! The stretch between Silverton and Ouray offers you the best opportunity to experience the amazing scenic highway and stop in nearby Telluride. Enjoy sites of the Uncompahgre Gorge, Idarado Mine, Animas River, San Juan National Forest, Haviland Lake, Elektra Lake, Twilight Peak, Red Mountain Pass, and many more "million dollar" views that make up the American West.

Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad - The Durango to Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad is one of the best fun-filled events for the entire family in Colorado--about 2 hours away.

San Juan Skyway - The San Juan Skyway covers 236 miles of terrain across the beautiful southwest corner of Colorado. Starting in Durango, the skyway travels in a loop passing through Cortez, Dolores, Rico, Telluride, Ridgway, Ouray and Silverton. Travel over high mountain passes, through historic mining towns, and through the heart of 5 million acres of both the San Juan and Uncompahgre National Forests.

Ouray - The historic city of Ouray is located just a short hour's drive (50 miles) from Telluride. Ouray claims itself as the "Little Switzerland of America" and is set in a box canyon similar to Telluride's.

Durango - Nestled in the Animas River Valley surrounded by the San Juan Mountains about 2 hours away.

Silverton - Our friendly ski town neighbor, Silverton, is a 2-hour drive (74 miles) away from Telluride, weather depending. Silverton is a former silver mining camp which takes advantage of the secluded location, steep terrain, and enormous amounts of snowfall in the winters.

Four Corners - The Four Corners is a region of the United States consisting of southwest Colorado, northwest New Mexico, northeast Arizona and southeast Utah. With Telluride's strategic location in the Four Corners area, you can easily make day trips to many exciting destinations. Top attractions around the Four Corners include: Mesa Verde National Park, Moab, Arches National Park, Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad, Canyon de Chelly National Monument, Canyonlands, Lake Powell and more.
